REGION 1 DIVISION 3 REGIONAL MEET

INFORMATION & SCHEDULE

Qualifying for Regional and State Competition Equipped Division:

The top 12 lifters from each division will qualify for Regional competition. There are three ways to qualify for Regionals: be in the top 12 of your weight class for your division, reach your weight class's automatic total or be the one of the top 2 lifters from your UIL classification. There are three ways to qualify for State: place in the top two at Regional competition, reach your weight classes automatic total at the Regional meet, or be the one of the top 2 lifters in your UIL classification (3A div. 1, 3A div. 2, 1/2A) at the Regional meet.

Qualifying for Regional and State Competition Unequipped Division:

The top 5 lifters from each weightclass (1A through 6A) will qualify for Regional competition. Unequipped lifters will compete alongside the equipped competitors in the same weightclass at their regional site Div. 3 will be here in Colorado City. The results will be compiled after all Regional meets have been concluded to determine the qualifiers for the unequipped division. Top 2 lifters in regional competition in each weightclass will advance to the state meet in Frisco, Tx Thursday March 14th in the PM session.

Regional Qualification / Competition: By the declaration date, the coach must declare what division and weight class the lifter will be lifting in if she has qualified for regionals in more than one division and weight class.

There will be 12 State Qualifiers in each weight class. If there is a tie for second place, both lifters will qualify for the State Meet. Qualifiers will be posted on the THSWPA website once regional meets have concluded.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)
 Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.
If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
